

Panel 1

Hybrid Political Orders, Peacebuilding and State Formation: Experiences from Africa, the Pacific and Asia

Session 4: Thursday July 8: 11:00 – 12:30

Room/Building: Education Building 436

Chair: Anne Brown, University of Queensland, ISSR, ACPACS

Discussant: Martina Fischer, Berghof Research Center for Constructive Conflict Management

Presenters: Volker Boege, Australian Centre for Peace and Conflict Studies (Peacebuilding and state formation in post-conflict Bougainville)

Morgan Brigg/Jodie Curth, School of Political Science & International Relations, University of Queensland (Policy Disorder or Evolving Hybridity? Post-conflict Capacity Development in Solomon Islands)

Herbert Wulf, Institute for Development and Peace, University of Duisburg Essen, Germany (Misguided State Building: The Case of Afghanistan)

Tobias Debiel/Daniel Lambach, Institute for Development and Peace, University of Duisburg Essen, Germany (Global Governance meets Local Politics: On Western State-building and the Resilience of Hybrid Political Orders)

Panel 2

Local Alternatives to the ‚Liberal Peace‘ Approach

Session 2: Wednesday July 7: 11:00 – 12:30

Room/Building: Education Building 508

Chair: Tobias Debiel, Institute for Development and Peace, University of Duisburg Essen, Germany

Discussant: Herbert Wulf, Institute for Development and Peace, University of Duisburg Essen, Germany

Presenters: M. Anne Brown/Alex Freitas Gusmao, University of Queensland, ISSR, ACPACS/ National University of Timor Leste (Local democratization in post-conflict societies - East Timor)

Martina Fischer, Berghof Research Center for Constructive Conflict Management (Civil Society and State Formation in Post War Bosnia-Herzegovina)

Oliver Richmond, University of St. Andrews, School of International Relations (Towards a Post-liberal Peace)

Panel 3

Peace and Development at the Local and Community Level

Session 3: Wednesday July 7: 16:00 – 17:30

Room/Building: Education Building 508

Chair: Herbert Wulf, Institute for Development and Peace, University of Duisburg Essen, Germany

Discussant: Kevin Clements, University of Otago

Presenters: Michael Canares, Sydney-based project manager for the Geneva-based Centre for Humanitarian Dialogue (In Violence as it is in Peace: The Changing Face of Entrepreneurship in Post-Martial Law Rural Philippines)

Ayub Sajid, Organization for Development and Peace(ODP) (An Analytical Study on the Situation of Peace in the District of Dera Ghazi Khan, Punjab, Pakistan)

Claudia L. Hale/Ann Shoemake, Ohio University (Preserving Peace and Harmony When Your Neighbor is Fighting: The View from South Kalimantan)

Panel 4

Surviving Armed Violence and Building Peace

Session 5: Thursday July 8: 14:00 – 15:30

Room/Building: Education Building 436

Chair: Volker Boege, Australian Centre for Peace and Conflict Studies

Discussant: Tobias Debiel, Institute for Development and Peace, University of Duisburg Essen, Germany

Presenters: Albie Sharpe, Interfaculty Institute of International Studies, Ritsumeikan University (Health Security Interventions in Sri Lanka: Evaluating the Peace-Building Outcome)

Aime Saba, AusAID (Preventing Conflicts in Africa through Democracy-building? An analysis of recent developments)

Helen Ware, University of New England (West Africa: What is known of the relationship between peace & development)

Cate Buchanan, Sydney-based project manager for the Geneva-based Centre for Humanitarian Dialogue (Surviving armed violence: Developing a research agenda, and evidence base for policy and programming)

Aurangzaib Alizai, Asian Institute of Technology (Renegotiating Gendered Ideologies during Forced Displacement)

Business Meeting

Session 6: Friday, 9 July: 11:00 – 12:30

Room/Building: poster gallery of the Center for Peace and Conflict Studies (CPACS)